

Liebe Mitglieder!

Vom 9. bis 14. Juni 2008 findet in Athen der 24. Welt-Kongress der IAOPA statt. Außer den offiziellen Delegierten der nationalen AOPAs sind auch alle AOPA Mitglieder eingeladen, nach Athen zu kommen.

Für ein „Fly-in“ wurden besondere Konditionen geschaffen.

Beachten Sie bitte die nachstehenden Informationen und entnehmen sie weitere Details der Internet-Seite der AOPA Hellas: www.aopa.gr .

Dear Friends,

IAOPA and AOPA-Hellas cordially invite you to attend the 24th IAOPA World Assembly to take place in Athens, Greece, 9-14 June 2008. Delegates to the Assembly will discuss the future of General Aviation and debate policies that will shape its future internationally. Come and visit the land of Icarus, the birthplace of aviation. Visit the city of Athens, attractively renovated for the 2004 Olympics.

AOPA-Hellas is committed to making the 2008 IAOPA World Assembly a most memorable event. Visit the website at www.aopa.gr to read all the information about the convention programme and the additional events such as the Icarus Aero Expo, the air show, seminars and fly-in at Tatoi Airport of Athens.

You are all most welcome. See you in 2008!

Yiuli KALAFATI
President AOPA Hellas

With a recent decision of the Ministry of National Defense and the Hellenic Air Force, AOPA Hellas will be able to use Tatoi Airport for ten days (6-16 June 2008) in order to host the events of the 24th IAOPA World Assembly.

More specifically:

1. All Greek and foreign aircrafts visiting Athens to attend the World Assembly events will be granted free access to Tatoi airport as well as unlimited overnight stays during the World Assembly (6-16 June 2008). The events that will take place at Tatoi airport are as follow
2. The 1st Greek AERO Exhibition for Business and General Aviation with international exhibitors.
3. Air Show (demo Flights) with the participation of civil and military aircraft
4. Initiation flights sponsored by Air BP
5. Seminars for pilots with key note speakers including Phil Boyer, Hellenic Air Force representatives, Air Safety Foundation experts as well as several international instructors.
6. Free access to the Hellenic Air Force Museum and the M. Kyriakou museum
7. Other happenings to be announced

The abovementioned events have been made possible thanks to the organizational support of the HAF (Hellenic Air Force), the contributions of Sponsors and the active involvement of the entire Aviation family.
